
One point per training seed, width 256. NLL is measured on the training table (no held-out split).